CAMUSO 2's CONTACTS

LATVIAN SSR 1952

CAMUSO 2 would first attempt to get to the island of DOLE, which is located approximately 20 km. south of Riga in the Daugava River. Crossing the Daugava from the western bank over the bridge, he would attempt to contact his mother's best friend, KRISTINE DARZINS, now about 60 years of age. She is married to an owner of barges used to transport various items on the Daugava. Their home is on the eastern shore of the island. CAMUSO 2 intends to cross the Daugava from the eastern shore of the island via small boats which are used ~~xx~~ for such purpose; from the eastern shore of the Daugava (where the city of SALASPILS is located), CAMUSO 2 could proceed to Riga on foot, by train, or by bus. From the island of DOLE he could proceed to Riga by boat. It should be noted that CAMUSO 2 knows this entire area well, having been there countless times.

In Riga CAMUSO 2 knows AUGUSTS MEDNIS, a distant relative from his mother's side, whom he last saw in the latter part of 1944. MEDNIS lives on Skolas street with his wife and is now about 65 years old. He had two sons, both of whom are now dead. MEDNIS worked for the Latvian state bank and was pensioned in about 1938.

A female cousin from his mother's side (mother's sister's daughter), whom CAMUSO 2 last saw in the latter part of 1944. She is now about 38 years old. In 1944 she worked on a small farm growing vegetables and flowers for city consumption on the outskirts of Riga in the Kalnciems section (on the left bank of the Daugava river). In 1944 she was about to be married, and was called (fmu) KLAVINS.

Another cousin (same relationship as above) is ELZA LUTERS who, when last seen in 1944, was married to MARTINS LUTERS and had two children. At that time they owned their own home on Narvas street. Her husband was a butcher and had a stall in the Central Market in Riga. ELZA LUTERS was a housewife. The husband is about 45 and his wife about 40.

KARLIS ALKSNIS, now about 60 years old. Used to be flight instructor in CAMUSO 2's squadron. Has spent the major portion of his life in the Latvian air corps. ~~attendant in the air corps~~ From 1934-40 he was a commercial pilot on the Riga-Liepaja line. He lives near Sampeter radio station. CAMUSO 2 believes that of all his acquaintances or relatives, this man is the most trustworthy and experienced for contact purposes. He last saw him at the end of August 1944 in the vicinity of Tukums. ALKSNIS was married and had no children.

(fmu) KALNINS had a son, Viesturs, who was deported in 1941 and who was one of CAMUSO 2's closest friends. (fmu) KALNINS is now about 70 years old and in 1944 lived at the end of Gertrudes street. He had a shoemakers shop on Matis street. Last seen in 1944.

(fnu) PRESNIKOV worked at the State Electrical Appliance Factory (VEF) as an electrical engineer during the German occupation. When last seen in 1944, he lived near the Skirota railroad station. Now is about 40 years old. A distant relative from CAMUSO 2's mother's side. Engaged in some black market activities during the German occupation.

CAMUSO 2 also has a mother and ~~two~~ sister in Riga, as well as a great many relatives from his mother's side in the vicinity of Alukane. Relatives from his father's side live in the vicinity of Lejasciems. He also has numerous additional friends and distant relatives in Riga. These he considers inferior to those listed above. CAMUSO 2 does not wish to contact his mother, sister, or relatives living in the provinces, because he feels they are too insecure.
